EDITORIAL COMMENTS. The Clifton Enterprise greeted us last week under a new management. Pettus Bros, experienced newspaper men, have secured control of the paper, and their first issue was neatly printed, and was filled with a class of reading matter that it takes to make a country paper interesting and appreciated.

CORRESPONDENCE. SHADY GROVE. Bad weather and law suits are the order of the day. G. M. Neighbors and his son have been to Florence, Ala., on business.

HENDERSON, TENN. Health is very good here. John Tidwell is trading horses very rapidly—six times in two days.

OLD NUB. I understand G. W. Wilkins is contemplating buying a steam saw mill and gin at this place, and is going into business with a $10,000 stock. We wish him success.

The G. R. C. College is in progress with 925 students enrolled, and more still entering. Henderson is improving very fast in the way of new buildings going up.

HOOKEE'S BEND. We come at a late hour, wishing you a happy new year and success in your work, and in giving us a good paper. Our community was quite surprised by a wedding last Wednesday at 3 p. m., the parties being E. Hogden and Mrs. Lappington, Esq. Gary officiated. We extend best wishes to them. On Friday night, several boys serenaded them.

On last Sunday, our new pastor, Rev. Williams, from Adamsville, preached at Antioch. He will preach once a month, the second Sunday at 11 o'clock.

J. N. White has been suffering with a bone felon for the past few weeks, and it is still bad. J. M. Barross moved from Chester county to the Bend. Savels residence on White Oak. Glad to have him back. He is a jolly, good fellow.

A. A. Dickey from Adamsville, was over on business Saturday. Chris Young, a well-known gentleman, was in our section last week buying cattle.

HENRIETTA. SALTILLO. Another year has sped away on old Time's fleet pinions, and 1898 with its joys and sorrows is here. So, correspondents, one and all, let us try to do our duty to the great and only Courier.

J. E. Bugg made a business trip to Paducah last week. Bruce Galbraith, of Henderson, is in town.

Misses Clara and Drua Davy have returned from a visit to relatives and friends in Hooker's Bend. Mr. Ollie Buckner spent the holidays at his home in Parsons.

Miss Jennie Wilkinson, after a pleasant stay of several days at Henderson, has returned home. Dr. J. F. Harbert visited his parents at Morris Chapel one day last week. The Dr. informs us that his father will move his family here this or next week. A cordial welcome is extended them.

CHRISTOPHER NORTH. BETHLEHEM. Mr. Editor, if you will allow me space in your little paper I will give you a few items.

Health is very good in this community. Christmas is over and the young people enjoyed several musical entertainments.

The singing and midnight supper at D. W. Hales's on Wednesday night of last week was highly enjoyed by all that were present. An infant child of Robert Newall's was buried at Bethlehem last Thursday evening.

Mrs. Meek's from Adamsville, is visiting Mrs. R. C. Foster. Bill Wilson said the next quilting he goes to he will walk in preference to carrying his bride and saddle home on his back.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Gillham was the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Rowsey Monday night of last week. Geo. Rowsey says he thinks he is getting along very well. Two of his best girls married last week. Cheer up old boy; your time will come.

Rev. Cook will preach at Bethlehem next Sunday. Success to the Courier and its many readers.

GUESS WHO. RIGHT. There was quite a boom in our town Saturday.

W. H. Newell of Henderson paid our town a visit in the interest of his creamery. We are sorry to report that Dr. Harbert is leaving our town, making his future home in Saltילו.

G. J. Moffit of Morris Chapel was in our town this week. Joseph Copeland of the Bend was with the boys Saturday. He says he believes he would rather be Register than live in Sibley.

A. L. Orr, the successful cattle man, was in town Monday. Mr. O'Neil came out successful in his law suit Saturday between himself and Mr. Sam Mickens.

If any of you boys in the Bend see anything you don't know don't get excited; it is only old Bro. Hogden, as he went off in the Bend and got married. We wish the old man much happiness.

Newman and Hoover, two more candidates, were in town to-day. G. W. Harbert of Savannah was in town Saturday.

Joe East of Savannah was here looking for some stray stock. R. L. McKinzie of St. Louis, the grocery drummer, spent a night in town last week.

A. L. Orr is talking of taking a trip to Paducah. F. M. Wilkins started hunting Monday, but was so afraid that he would hit a candidate or a cattle buyer that he came back.

OLD NUB. Miss Nellie Baird was cheered up over the idea that he was coming back by and by, but she says she has lost all hopes of ever seeing him again.

GIBBS. S. H. Cossey and children of Harrisburg, Ark., spent the holidays with the family of A. Branum and left for their home the 3d. W. A. Franks and family of Nixon, spent a few days recently near Waterloo.

Gibbs has lost one of her best boys. We regret his departure. He was a boy whom every person honored and esteemed. We wish you much success in all your undertakings, Charlie.

H. L. Wood has moved to Horse Creek. W. A. Frank will move to our town soon.

B. B. Branum is still boarding with Mr. George Bivens. One of our young ladies says, if that young man could just stand up—but that is the way with all "Dollies."

Misses Ida and Hattie Branum spent a few days last week with relatives at Nixon. J. C. Wood and his sister Mary spent last week with friends and relatives on Horse Creek.

Little Blanche Cossey of Harrisburg was presented with a nice gold ring as a Xmas gift by her cousin, B. B. Branum. A. Branum is talking about going west in the near future.

Best wishes to the Courier: PAT. WARD. The holidays are over and we are glad to say that our community was blessed with the best of visitors.

John Wood and sister, of Walnut Grove, were with us for a few days, and brought with them their musical instruments, and some of our young people say they make heavenly music.

Bud Hardin and wife of Henderson county visited his father, M. S. Hardin, and were accompanied home by his sister Miss Fannie. Miss Fannie said, Bless God, Xmas has come and Tone with it.

We have a special order out for a choice load of hay for our lively stable. Come up, Luther. Miss Betsy Porter says she is going north on the next visit.

Mr. and Mrs. John McFalls, of Graham's Chapel, visited Mrs. W. J. Porter last week. Alvy Porter and wife visited the family of H. L. Porter, and they report a hog-killing time; fine weather for the business.

Miss Nannie King spent a few days in the Mt. Tabor neighborhood, and whom did she find when she returned home? Mr. Ben, I guess. We are sorry to report that Mrs. N. E. Porter, who has been sick so long, has been worse for several days.

JUDGE & I. SHILOH PARK ITEMS. This warm spring-like weather is causing the farmers to begin to talk about making another crop, and the problem to solve is, how much to put in cotton.

Abe Rubel, C. D. Brown and W. J. Sutton, cotton buyers, have been in our midst the past week and bought 237 bales, which were shipped out Sunday. Dr. Petty made a business trip to Corinth Saturday.

Will Hurley and family, of Tulu, was visiting relatives here Saturday. Sheriff Story was here Saturday night, on business I suppose. M. A. Kirby and Will Pride returned from Florence. Mr. Kirby brought his household goods with him, and his family will soon join him and make their home here indefinitely.

Our Republican neighbors have decided not to wait any longer for McKinley to open up his mills, but have sold what cotton they had on hand and are preparing for a new crop. Mr. Thompson, the senior editor of the Courier, came up on the Cherry Sunday and took in the National Cemetery and surroundings while the boat was gone to Hamburg. Come again, Mr. editor; you have not seen the half yet.

OTHELLO. PICKWICK. Misses Minnie Parrell and Annie Carroll of Nixon are visiting friends and relatives here. Amzi Burks and Charlie Stephenson of Itasca, Texas, are here spending the holidays. They say they are going to stay till spring and plant a big pea crop.

Walter and Miss Eva Counce are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Leeth this week. Mrs. E. J. Martin, who has been ill the past four months, passed away last Friday night, January 7. We are glad that we can say that she was a true Christian, and that she has gone to a better world, where all is peace and happiness. Our mourning friends have the heartfelt sympathy of the whole community.

A small crowd of young folks spent Sunday evening at Mr. and Mrs. Burks' very pleasantly. Miss Nellie Baird was cheered up over the idea that he was coming back by and by, but she says she has lost all hopes of ever seeing him again.

C. M. Durbin was in our midst last Sunday. We were glad to see our teacher once more. Amzi Burks says he wishes that girl would stay at Pickwick all the time, as he don't know the way to the Bend.

Edgar Barks is simply heart-broken, and it is because Miss Daisy has gone off to school. Edgar, we are sorry for you, but we can't help it. Ask Miss Hester Burks how much of the sermon she heard last Sunday.

Miss Lizzie Crow thinks "Amzi" is the prettiest name, and you can guess why. P. P. Baird, who has been in Memphis for the past six weeks, returned home Sunday and entered school at this place.

BETHEL. Come one and all, Both great and small; I've sad news to relate; If light or dark, A candidate at the gate. They will give their hand, To women or man; They are a friendly crew, And it's how's your life, And how's your wife, And how's your baby too.

Al Watson is out, Riding about; And Late Hoover is in a trot, They are sure to go, Through rain or snow For fear they will get defeated, You know. Sam and David Roberts of Hunt County, Texas, were with us a few days ago. Their ma, aunt Emaline Roberts, accompanied them back home.

H. L. Johnson has more music at his house—it's a big boy. We can inform George L. Burns that we are no haunt, if we do linger around the grave yard late at night. However, George is a good runner. Dr. Lindsey has moved into our community. English Tom Walker moved in to this section recently.

WARD. Miss Ada Wynn was the guest of Misses Betsey and Mackie Porter Thursday. There weren't but five of the Porter boys went deer driving on Thursday. We wonder where the rest were. Miss Mackie Porter spent Wednesday night with the family of H. M. Dickson.

Miss Mittie Ward thinks there is nothing more useful than Wood in cold weather. Dick Hardin and Neil Cherry past through our midst this week with a drove of cattle. Rev. Tredway preached an excellent sermon at Ward's chapel Sunday.

Ask Miss Mittie Ward who it was that came Sunday. Taylor Frank was smiling over about Wm. Porter's Sunday. Bid Anther and Rome Porter went to Turkey's bird hunting. Miss Vienna Kendall was the guest of Mrs. Fanny Ward Saturday night. Mr. Harvy Dickson was smiling in our midst Sunday.

JUDGE & I. PAULKES. The health of this community is very good at present. Rev. Dixon preached at Robertson's Chapel last Saturday night and Sunday. Miss Willie Kirby of Cerro Gordo is visiting Miss Corrie Hall this week. Last Monday morning Mr. Pitts Wolf found his house burning, and from appearances it had been burning all night.

Jess Dobbins of Hooker's Bend spent part of last week with Riley Freeman. Ike Lynch has moved into the house recently vacated by Mr. Li-man. The young people of this neighborhood enjoyed a singing at Mr. Hall's last Thursday night and one at Mr. Daniel Falls' Friday night. Mrs. Ora Hurst has been visiting her parents on Turkey Creek this week. Wonder who Ed DeFord will employ to teach his baby's name Frank Mcmahon visited friends near Olive Hill Saturday and Sunday. Mr. Young, the cattle buyer was in our neighborhood on business this week. Mrs. D. A. Hurst visited relatives in Savannah last week. Rev. Seaton will preach at Robertson's Chapel next Saturday night and at Mt. Hermon Sunday. Gib Wolf will go to a party with two young ladies, then say to the other boys, 'It's big I and little u.' That wedding we wanted to report is put off for a while; mamma objected. Yes, we would be glad to read a letter in the Courier from Prof. Alonzo Phillips. PEARL HONEYDEW.

ADAMSVILLE. J. L. Alexander has sold out his business to G. A. Sipes. Mr. Alexander is one of our best, all-around business men; he attends closely to his own business and of course he is a success, and now we look at him with envy, and wonder why we can't make money like Fate. W. W. Stanley has sold out to Perkins & Jones; Webb was not so successful as Fate. John E. Houser of the Sardinia Times is here prospecting with a view to moving his paper to this place. We wish for him success and prosperity. Quite a number of our people, including the writer, enjoyed an oyster supper Saturday night at Freeman hotel. There were oysters and other good things in immense quantities, plenty of nice music, and the host was at his best. Dee Jones has gone to Louisiana. Bose and Luke Boon have returned to Texas. Our lawyer, Hon. Sam H. Butler, is looking despondent. He has our deepest sympathy. Harper Diekey and Sam B. Smith have been making some real estate deals lately. They are enterprising citizens, and when they take a notion to trade they are hard to hinder. X RAYS.

Things are getting warm at our State Capitol among politicians. The Senatorial contest between Turley and McMillin is waxing warm. NIXON. Bev. J. A. Sharp failed to fill his appointment at the chapel Sunday. Jim Jones of Walnut Grove was in our town last week. R. D. DeFord, the Publican, has been in our town twice this winter robbing our people. Rev. J. C. Roberts went out to his barn to feed his horse one morning last week, and behold, there was G. W. Long's Jack barred up in the stall and laughing at the joke he had gotten off on the preacher. Santa Claus tried to fly off with one of Esq. McCannless's wagon wheels one night of last week, but he got all mixed up in the top of a tree and lost the wheel and one half yard of his shirt. Miss Xie Watson of Paulks visited in our town during the holidays. Misses Fannie and Cora Long visited relatives at Walnut Grove the latter part of last and first of this week. Elbert Lamb, our townsman, who is teaching school on Hollis's Creek, was mingling with us Sunday. It is a five dollar fine for a candidate to pass through our town and not shake hands with some one of us. Our public school opened the first Monday of this month with more than a hundred students. Prof. J. M. Watson has given perfect satisfaction as a teacher and as a neighbor cannot be beaten. He has gained many friends during his stay with us, and his family is admired by all. John Morris has bought the Parrell land lying between the dwellings of Lewis Fowler and Green Hatley, and will build on it in the near future. If the Benton debating society knew that we had their subject and were debating it every night they certainly would send in their challenge. Bob Sison is our ragged man since he ran into the barbed wire fence. WARSAW. ORIGINAL ATTACHMENT J. H. WHITE vs. W. O. MITCHELL. In pursuance of an order heretofore made and entered by G. T. Shannon, Esq., a justice of the peace for Harlan county, in an attachment suit wherein J. H. White is plaintiff and you are defendant, you are hereby notified that upon the affidavit of the plaintiff it is alleged that W. O. Mitchell is a non-resident of the State of Tennessee, to the ordinary process of law cannot be served upon him, and that the defendant W. O. Mitchell is justly indebted to him by reason of a judgment rendered against the plaintiff J. H. White in favor of J. H. Craven for $502.35, a writ of attachment was on the 29th day of December, 1897, issued against you by G. T. Shannon, a justice of the peace of Harlan county, which writ came to the hands of J. B. Pitts, a constable of said county, and was by him on the 29th day of December, 1897, duly levied on certain property of yours, viz., your undivided one-sixth interest in one town lot known as the J. C. Mitchell homestead, also in the town lot now occupied by W. G. Newman in the town of Saltילו, also your one-sixth interest in the J. K. Atkins tract of land, also in the Logan tract of land and the L. T. Fisher tract of land, all of said tracts of land being in the 13th civil district of Harlan county, as appears by the returns of said constable made on the 29th day of December, 1897, to said G. T. Shannon, Esq., justice as aforesaid. Now then you the said W. O. Mitchell are requested to appear at noon on the 5th day of March, 1898, at the office of the said G. T. Shannon, Esq., in the 13th civil district of Harlan county, before him as the justice having cognizance of this case then and there to defend this action so commenced against you by attachment, otherwise the case will be proceeded in ex parte. This December 29, 1897. G. T. SHANNON, J. P., Harlan County.

Pains in the small of the back indicate a diseased condition of the kidneys. Owing to the dangerous nature of the diseases which attack these organs it is important that measures should be taken to remove the trouble before it has become too firmly fixed. Prudence would suggest the prompt use of Dr. J. H. McLean's Liver and Kidney Balm, which has specific action on the liver and kidneys and will cause an early restoration to healthy condition. Price $1. a bottle. For sale by McDougal Drug Co.
